

Hillsdale Academy

VIRTUS ET SAPIENTIA

HILLSDALE COLLEGE

Upper School Humanities Job Posting

A mature, yet growing and vibrant, Christian classical school with a strong student and faculty culture, Hillsdale Academy is located on the campus of Hillsdale College in Hillsdale, MI and is an extension of Hillsdale College's commitment to American classical K-12 education. The Academy offers a content-rich education through a time-honored curriculum in the liberal arts and sciences with a focus on sound pedagogy, serving as a resource and exemplar for classical schools nationwide. As an overflow of that two-fold mission, the faculty of Hillsdale Academy dedicate themselves to excellence in the classroom, regularly fine-tuning the craft of teaching to serve their students well and to model the pedagogical principles upheld by Hillsdale College.

Hillsdale Academy is accepting applications for an upper school humanities teaching position to include the teaching of the following potential courses for the 2026-27 school year: American literature, rhetoric, and language arts. Exact courses and teaching schedule will be determined based on applicant experience.

Hillsdale Academy teachers are employees of Hillsdale College and receive attractive benefits packages and unique opportunities for professional development amongst a robust intellectual community. Salary will be competitive and based on experience and level of education. Further information about the mission and culture of Hillsdale Academy may be found at academy.hillsdale.edu. Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume promptly to Headmaster Mike Roberts at mroberts@hillsdale.edu.